Email	General Comment	Affordable Housing	Goal 2, pg. 102 (Neighborhood Diversity and Inclusion). The policies presented will make affordability more difficult in both the Arch and the Wedge in Charlotte. They will destroy the character of single family neighborhoods. Development guidelines such as setbacks should be included in the comp plan, not just in the UDO. Up-zoning by right does not allow for any input from neighborhoods most impacted by change.	Charlotte is estimated to add 400,000 to its population by 2040. To accommodate future growth, we need to be proactive in thinking about how to meet the demand for providing housing for changing demographics and at different price points in all parts of our community. Diverse housing options, such as duplexes, triplexes and fourplexes are house-scale buildings intended to fit seamlessly into existing residential neighborhoods and support walkability, local-serving retail, and public transportation options. This approach will also respond to the shortage in housing supply in our community. Single-family homes are not being eliminated, torn down or not allowed in future developments. This is reflected in the current plan. The 2040 Comprehensive Plan remains committed to preserving and protecting Charlotte's charming neighborhoods and vibrant communities. The Comprehensive Plan does NOT change zoning. However, it DOES provide policy direction to remove barriers to creating more housing diversity and making residential areas more inclusive.
Email	General Comment	Affordable Housing	Retaining NOAH is great but may be in conflict with the goal for increased density as well as the rights of the property owner. Selling market rate units mixed with more affordable units is not realistic, and the market rate units may end up being overpriced. Developers are also not incentivized to build well-constructed quads. Wrap-around services which lead to self-sufficiency and help individuals remain in their homes are a better option for affordability	Thank you for your suggestions. Email	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	Allowing multiplexes into neighborhoods will allow larger structures closer to lot lines than single family zoning allows for single family homes. Just adding one house to the illustration that maxes out the building area of the lot would help illustrate this, or replace the existing single family home with one that maxes out the building area.	Thank you for your suggestion. Proposed revisions will be reviewed by city staff to ensure they are feasible as well as City Council to ensure they meet the intent of the plan.
Email	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	People pay money to be in a good location with solid infrastructure. If we provide solid infrastructure first in certain areas of Charlotte then and require that 50% of new units be affordable then we will be able to create a more equitable Charlotte.  Introducing multi-family developments in single-family zoned areas is not the answer, because there is often not enough pedestrian and open space infrastructure in those areas.	Thank you for your support. Feedback on the Charlotte Future 2040 draft policies will be shared with City Council. Council members will evaluate all the feedback received.

	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	How will the city manage greenspace when encouraging higher-density housing options like triplexes and quads? There should be lot size minimums in place.	The Unified Development Ordinance will provide land development regulations for open space and lot size requirements.
	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	How will housing values be impacted for those who have already invested in their homes?	The Comprehensive Plan is policy document that does not regulate housing values. However, many of our existing neighborhoods have a variety of housing types and have not experienced adverse impacts in their housing values.

Email	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	Provide clarification about proposal to allow duplexes and triplexes in single family neighborhoods. Could a developer build multi-family in place of a single family home?	Charlotte is estimated to add 400,000 to its population by 2040. To accommodate future growth, we need to be proactive in thinking about how to meet the demand for providing housing for changing demographics and at different price points in all parts of our community. Diverse housing options, such as duplexes, triplexes and fourplexes are house-scale buildings intended to fit seamlessly into existing residential neighborhoods and support walkability, local-serving retail, and public transportation options. This approach will also respond to the shortage in housing supply in our community. Developers will be required to meet zoning and land development standards for established for single-family neighborhoods.

Email	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	Goal 2.1 which recommends allowing duplex and triplex housing units on all lots where single-family housing is allowed should have a clear connection to Goal 7 (Integrated Natural and Built Environments) and Goal 10 (Fiscally Responsible):a. Housing

Email	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	1. What details are there on how this plan is different than current zoning where multi-family housing is already in place? 2. Are we doing away with historical districts? 3. Do you expect developers to be attracted to less-expensive s.f. property? 4. It seems that this plan will benefit developers. 5. How has this become a racial issues.	The Comprehensive Plan does NOT change zoning. However, it DOES provide policy direction to remove barriers to creating more housing diversity and making residential areas more inclusive. Historic districts will remain in tact and other neighborhoods will continue to have the opportunity to pursue that designation should they choose to and meet the requirements.

Email	General Comment	Missing Middle Housing	I am concerned about the elimination of single family zoning proposal in the plan. Many constituents who are homeowners are already concerned about gentrification, rising property taxes, and the consequences of intense development in their neighborhood (ex. runoff issues). Out of state LLC reps are also worried about the proposal. Elimination of s.f. zoning only benefits developers and builders, but not even developers seem pleased with the plan, which definitely means there are issues with it. I believe the concept of eliminating s.f. was kept from the public until the draft plan was released in 10/2020. We never heard anything about it before then.	Single-family homes are not being eliminated, torn down or not allowed in future developments. This is reflected in the current plan. The 2040 Comprehensive Plan remains committed to preserving and protecting Charlotte's charming neighborhoods and vibrant communities. The Comprehensive Plan does NOT change zoning. However, it DOES provide policy direction to remove barriers to creating more housing diversity and making residential areas more inclusive.
